DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 5, 7, 11-14 and 19-27 are pending. Applicant cancelled claims 1-4, 6, 8-10 and 15-18.

2. The previous Office Action is withdrawn pursuant to Applicant's Amendment and REMARKS received July 14, 2004.

Election/Restrictions

3. Newly submitted claims 21-27 directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: The species concepts of client subscription, time limiting and control code were not previously presented and would require further search/consideration.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 21-27 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3627

5. Claims 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 7, lines 5-6, is redundant to the claim terminology of claim 1, lines 5-7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 5, 7, 11-14, 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Quelene, US 6,453,306.

Quelene discloses an electronic database where an electronic document has an associated identifier and is stored, e.g. 249, over a time period at the electronic database, comprising computer servers, e.g. 112 and separate independent web servers, e.g. col. 4, lines 13-32. Also, the database may store other documents not generated by an e-commerce transaction. Quelene does not specifically disclose the database being non-modifiable. However, it was common knowledge in the electronic commerce art to have provided non-modifiable read access electronic documents having a document identifier stored at a electronic database, e.g. the system of "E-Bay.com" is an example of this type of system.

To have provided a non-modifiable read access electronic document having a document identifier stored at a electronic database for Quelene would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art in view of common knowledge. The motivation for doing such would have been to have provided a accurate record of an electronic document finally negotiated during an electronic commerce transaction.

8. Further pertinent references of interest are noted on the attached PTO-892.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
